MORE THAN 12,000 PACKAGES
ARE DELIVERED IN CITY
IN PAST TWO WEEKS

MAIL STILL COMES

OVER 2000 PIECES ARE NOT PROPERLY ADDRESSED; TO SEARCH FOR OWNERS

Belated Christmas packages are still pouring into the Glendale post-office at the rate of 1,500 a day, according to latest reports of the superintendent, George Hallett. For the last four days the number of parcels handled averaged 2,000 daily and, while the rush is slackening up, postal authorities expect the branch to average at least 1,000 a day for the remainder of the week. Extra help will be employed up to that time. This year broke all records.

Superintendent Hallett estimated that in the last two weeks 12,435 packages or more had been delivered to Glendale residents, to say nothing of letters and postal cards that probably numbered in the neighborhood of 50,000.

More than 2,000 packages and many more letters and greeting cards were insufficiently and incorrectly addressed, necessitating directory service. Many of these are still undelivered and may not reach their destination until long after the holidays. The majority of these failed to give a street address.

Work on Christmas and Sunday Superintendent Hallett and his corps of forty clerks and carriers made every effort to give promptness of service during the unprecedented holiday rush. Mail was delivered as fast as it was received, the carriers working tirelessly Christmas and Sunday, as well as through the week. On Christmas one delivery of mail was made. Packages were delivered Sunday, as it was thought best not to allow the surplus to pile up.

Every effort will also be made to see that parcels and letters incorrectly addressed find their way to the right parties and such mail will only be returned to the sender when all attempts to locate the one to whom it is addressed have failed.

ENTERTAIN; PLANNING TO ATTEND TOURNAMENT

A surprise dinner, consisting of five courses, was given Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McElroy at their home on Adams street, Christmas eve, commemorating their thirtieth wedding anniversary. Gifts of pearls and silver were made them.

On Christmas morning they, with Miss Cora Powell and Harold A. McElroy, motored to Fullerton, where they were guests of Mr. McElroy's sister, Mrs. J. S. Olin, for the weekend. A turkey dinner with all the trimmings was served by the hostess to ten on Christmas day. Those in the party were, practically, those who were guests at Mrs. McElroy's on Thanksgiving day. They are planning to attend the rose carnival at Pasadena on New Year's day and have a picnic lunch. Afterwards, if fortunate enough to secure tickets, they will attend the football game and root for the Ohio team.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—For just one article, a publishing company has offered President Wilson $150,000, it was learned today. The president declined the offer. GERMANY'S ANSWER MAKES COMPLICATION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PARIS, Dec. 29.—With rumors of new wars flitting about European chancelleries, Germany complicated the situation today with a brusque reply to the allied demand for disarmament of the citizens' guard. Those having the time and the interests of Glendale at heart are urged to be present and do their bit towards making the float a prize winner.

MUCH IMPRESSED

MRS. S. C. PACKER TELLS OF ILLUMINATION OF TREES
BY PASADENA CITY

Mrs. S. C. Packer, 362 Riverdale drive, who visited in Altadena recently, was very much impressed with the illumination which the city of Pasadena has installed for over the holidays on Santa Rosa avenue. Red, green and white lights numbering 4,000 have been placed in the rows of cypress trees along that street. This is a very beautiful sight and will especially please the Eastern visitors, Mrs. Packer says.

GUESTS IN CITY

PAUL RICHARDSON IS HOME
FOR HOLIDAYS; FRIENDS ARE WITH HIM

Paul Richardson, son of Mrs. Ella Richardson, 525 South Central avenue, is home from Stanford for the holidays and has as his house guests two Sigma Chi pals, Messrs. Meekin and Woods, of Colorado.

The boys are making the most of their vacation, filling every minute of it with fun of some sort. On Monday they motored with Mrs. Richardson to Venice and Santa Monica, and on Monday evening they attended the meeting of the Ohio State society in Los Angeles, where they had the pleasure of meeting the members of the Ohio State university football team, which is to play in Pasadena on New Year's day.

Yesterday Mrs. Richardson took them to Long Beach and last night she entertained a group of their friends with a dancing party at her home.

Today Paul and his friends are making a trip up Mount Lowe, but as they are "some" football athletes themselves, they will, no doubt, be fresh for some new adventure this evening.

HOLIDAY TREAT

MEMBERS OF TUESDAY CLUB
ARE HOSTESSES; LITTLE ONES ENTERTAINED

PROGRAM ENJOYED

HALL IN FESTIVE ARRAY IN HONOR OF GUESTS; CANDY
AND ICE CREAM

Yesterday afternoon the Tuesday Afternoon club members were hostesses at a Christmas party, entertaining the children whose mothers belong to the club. All the little boys and girls with rosy cheeks and bobbing curls, about 100 of them, the girls in their new Christmas hair ribbons and the boys in their Sunday best and their company manners, came marching in to a lively march rhythm played by Miss Gertrude Champlain, and took the front rows in the hollow square in which the seats had been arranged.

The hall was in festive array, Mrs. Walter Jones and her decoration committee having made a very effective arrangement of feathery pepper boughs (their red berries gleaming through the green), holly and other Christmas greenery, with masses of poinsettias, California's Christmas flowers.

Tiny tots just able to toddle, middle sized youngsters and taller girls and boys were among the guests, and the program arranged by canny Mrs. W. E. Evans, chairman of programs, was delightfully unique in that it, was thoroughly enjoyed by the smallest as well as the largest guest in the front rows; in fact, the grown-ups who were invited to take a back seat on this occasion manifested just as great pleasure in the program as their juniors.

Dancing Numbers Please
Miss Cecilia Mae Fischer, in an eccentric black costume with soft, rainbow-hued ruffles underneath, was charming in "The Mirror Dance," taking the poses of the gay Miss Vanity Personified with graceful abandon. Her encore, "The Magpie and the Parrot," was equally enjoyed by the audience.

She was followed by ten young ladies in "The Danse a la Abandon," attired in the costumes of gay red sprites, who danced in an abandon of irresponsible gaiety, as the name of this number indicates. They were received with enthusiastic applause.

The young ladies who took part in this much appreciated number were Misses Marjorie Hart, Dorothy Dut-

ACTION IN SELECTION OF CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS IS NOW RATIFIED

With about 100 members present, the Republican County Central committee held a meeting in the Union League club auditorium, Los Angeles, last night for the purpose of ratifying the action of the Pasadena conference in selecting Major Walter A. Lineberger of Long Beach to be the party's candidate for congress in the ninth district, of which Glendale is a part.

On motion of W. E. Evans of Glendale, who was placed in nomination at the Pasadena conference, but who withdrew, as did others in nomination, in order that the gathering might make a unanimous choice, last night made the motion that the committee ratify the action of the Pasadena conference in selecting Major Lineberger. The motion carried unanimously. The committee pledged its full support to the candidate.

On Japanese Question
Major Lineberger made a speech of acceptance and in it he gave his position on the Japanese question as follows:

"We cannot live in an intermingled condition with the Japanese and this is a plain, unvarnished fact which we must face or some day lose our supremacy on the American continent. If elected, I intend to carry back to Washington, as a mandate from the people of this state, the result of the approval of the anti-Japanese initiative on the November ballot. I hope to aid in the framing of legislation in a Republican congress which will thoroughly settle this question for all time, and to settle it that we may remain upon amicable terms with the Japanese nation—but to settle it, whatever may come."

Stand on Prohibition
Major Lineberger said that harbor improvements and projects of reforestation in the mountains are linked and he outlined a system of dams in mountain canyons as necessary. On the question of prohibition he declared:

"I believe that the triumph of placing a prohibition amendment in the Constitution and buttressing it with the Volstead act as an enforcing law is but the first great victory in the war against alcohol in this country—a great victory, to be sure, but only the beginning of a war in which I expect actively to participate on every proper occasion."

"The enemies of the amendment and the enforcing act will maintain a constant lobby at Washington, and no lobby will be so insidious and hard to kill as the liquor lobby. That it can be killed I have supreme faith, and I will give every ounce of my energy and whatever ability I possess to fight the liquor lobby whenever it rears its ugly head."

TO PAINT SALOONS RED
CHICAGO—On the high seas and in some countries a yellow flag or sign indicates the presence of deadly disease and peril. Federal prohibition enforcement officials are going to put the same sign on hundreds of saloons and cabarets in this city.

All of them will blossom out with great flaming red and yellow signs notifying the world that liquor must not be purchased within. The sign begins with the word "Beware!" in letters two feet high, and following is the information that the saloon on which this sign has been pasted has disobeyed the law and has been enjoined from selling liquor. The final sentence reads:

Harry Myers on Christmas day.

H. G. McBain, A. L. Baird and Max
Green are a trio of hunters who went a-hunting of wild geese up around Bakersfield Monday morning; but, paradoxically, their expedition cannot be called "a wild goose chase,"
since they report that they bagged

their respective families may have a goose dinner for New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Esterly, 363
West Salem street, are busy showing the beauty spots of California to Mrs. Esterly's brother, George H.
Nenstiel, of Johnstown, Pennsylv-

Rose Tournament will, of course, be the objective point of the party.

Los Angeles simply cannot give her many social and program entertainments without the help of one or another of Glendale's host of talented people. The Jonathan club has enlisted the services of the Misses Dorothy and Kathleen Woods, of 122
West Milford street, for the holiday entertainment for children of the club members tomorrow afternoon.
These gifted young ladies will appear in a Russian character dance for the delight of the little guests.

EXAMINATIONS

NATIONAL GUARD CANDIDATES WILL BE PASSED UPON BY
PHYSICIAN TONIGHT

Physical examination of men now
registered for service in Glendale company, National Guards, will take place at 7 o'clock this evening at the office of Dr. Gerhard Kaemmerling, 108-A North Brand.

It is not expected that all of the fifty-five men enlisted will pass the tests, but a campaign will be opened next week in Eagle Rock in which an effort will be made to obtain the full quota of fifty members, necessary before a company can be formed.

If the company is ready to be mustered in next week or even later, Glendale will go on record for having the most quickly formed company in the Los Angeles regiment, of which it will become a part. So far Burbank, mustered in after a two months' campaign, holds this record. Burbank's company has been formed since September.

Government Compensation
Captain Watson is very anxious that Glendale's quota be reached immediately, for not until the company is formed will the government allow compensation for drill. The men will receive for each night of drilling one-third of the regular monthly pay of regular army privates and officers. The federal government will also allow the Glendale company, when formed, $150 a month to pay the rental of an armory
hall and with which to purchase necessary equipment.

All army equipment including runnacks and uniforms for the men are furnished gratis. Captain Watson is now looking up a suitable hall in which to hold drill.

PAYS $1 HOUR FOR FRESH AIR
BALTIMORE—A dollar an hour
for air?

That is what an excursionist paid
the Western Maryland railroad company when he shattered a car window.

The passenger boarded a Hagerstown special and walked through four coaches before he found an unoccupied seat.

He tried to raise the window, but could not budge it. A brakeman also failed.

"How much will you charge me if I break this window?" the passenger asked.

The conductor told him to see Superintendent A. M. Smith of the Baltimore-Hagerstown division, who was on the train.

"Tell him it will cost him $3,"
said the superintendent jokingly.

The passenger handed the brakeman $3 and knocked the glass from the window.

It took the train three hours to reach Hagerstown, $1 an hour for air.

FOR CHILDREN

MRS. W. E. EVANS IS HOSTESS
TO CHRISTMAS PARTIES
FOR LITTLE ONES

It is good to be a child, Dickens tells us, and he adds that there is no better time to foster the child-spirit than at Christmas, when its Founder Himself became a Child.

Mindful of this great principle,
Mrs. W. E. Evans has arranged several delightful holiday parties for children this week. Not content with the large and enjoyable Christmas party she and her committee
managed so skillfully at the Tuesday Afternoon club, yesterday, Mrs. Evans is entertaining twice this week
in her own home for friends of her daughter, Miss Catherine.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs.
Evans chaperoned a party of Cath-erine's friends at the first show at Pantages theatre, the guests including Ruth Tower and Douglas, Kenneth and Gordon White.

Today Mrs. Evans and Catherine are giving a tea to which they have invited Curtis, Phyllis and Mary Jane McFadden of Bakersfield, who are visiting in the city, and Doris and Barbara Stamps. Of course, the mothers of these young people, Mrs.
C. W. McFadden and Mrs. W. M.
Stamps, are also guests, but because the Christmas holidays belong to the children, they come first in the guest list this time.

IN HONOR TEACHER

Mrs. J. M. Blankenship of 1317
North Brand boulevard entertained most delightfully on Monday afternoon the members of the Sunday morning and Wednesday afternoon
Bible classes of the Presbyterian church, in honor of their teacher, Mrs. J. R. Baker of 331 North Maryland avenue.

Each guest responded to roll call with a Christmas or Bible verse. The singing of the class song, composed by Mrs. J. F. McMillan, a member of the class, followed, and there was an enjoyable musical program consisting of vocal solos by Mrs. Zetta G.
Gibbons and piano numbers by Mrs.
McMillan.

Mrs. Blankenship held the attention of her hearers by the relation of the story of two French dolls received by her daughter at Christmas.
These dolls were made by wounded soldiers and sold for the benefit of soldiers' widows and orphans.

Christmas Game Proves Fun
Much merriment was caused by a Christmas game in which Mrs. Gaskin won the first prize, which proved to be the privilege of having the honor of presenting to Mrs. Baker a beautiful gift of China in the name of the Bible classes, as a mark of their love and esteem for their teacher.

Mrs. Baker responded with words of thanks in her own inimitable way.
A dainty lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by the social committee, and each guest carried home
as a souvenir of the happy occasion
a miniature stocking filled with nuts
and candy.

COUNTY MONEY

HUGE SUM IS ON DEPOSIT
AND IS COUNTED BY THREE OFFICERS.

Jonathan Dodge, chairman of the board of supervisors and representative of the district of which Glendale is a part, announced today that the county of Los Angeles has on hand
the largest sum of money ever before held by it in its history. The sum totaled $18,723,246.04 and was counted yesterday by Supervisor
Dodge, Frank Nance of the auditor's office and J. W. Joos of the district attorney's office, as is provided by law.

Most of the money is stored in the vaults of the various banks in the city and county. Next Monday county officials will confer on the rate of interest the county shall demand for money deposited in the banks. For twenty years the county has received 2 per cent interest, but this year the county will receive 3 per cent.

In addition to the huge sum on deposit, the county has $1,000,000 in Liberty Bonds and $500,000 in state highway bonds.

MANY CARS STOLEN DAILY

NEW YORK—An average of seventy to seventy-five automobiles are daily taken from New York City curbs by some one other than the owners, police records taken during November show, and only twenty to twenty-five of the cars are recovered by the police. It is estimated that auto thefts in New York City cause a property loss of $27,000,000 a year.

As a result, 150 insurance companies have organized the Automobile Underwriters' Detective bureau
which will cost them $250,000 a year
in the hope of curtailing the thefts.
About 9000 cars were stolen here last year. The estimate for this year is more than double that number.

Rosy Monday

The modern woman greets Monday morning with a smile. The old Blue Monday is no more in her home.

Instead of going through the old unpleasant routine she bundles up the family linen and turns it over to our driver. That's the end of her wash day troubles.

We wash her clothes in soft water with pure white soap and dry them in rooms where the air and sunlight have access and circulate freely.

A phone call will bring one of our drivers to your door.

Be Ready for Opportunity

The man who has a Time account is prepared to take advantage of opportunities when they offer. His experience has shown him that the only opportunities that can do him any good are those which he is in a position to grasp. He knows that he must be prepared beforehand.

A Time account at this bank pays you 4 per cent interest. In case you need the money you can get it any time! Should you not pay any attention to the account your interest goes on just the same and is added to the account every six months.
Such an account grows rapidly.

We invite you to open a Time account here and be in a position to grasp the next opportunity that comes your way.

TUESDAY CLUB

CHRISTMAS PARTY GIVEN IN THEIR HONOR

ton, Marie Hearnshaw, Vivian May,
Pauline Berry, Cecilia Mae Fischer,
Shirley Hitchcock, Glen Hitchcock,
Evelyn Hunt and Leona Hunt.

Miss Hazel Campbell delighted the audience with several readings in negro dialect. One was a darkey preacher's Christmas sermon to the children of his congregation, "Yer Under Obligations to Santa Claus;" another described the sensations of a number of little pickaninies when "Mammy's Cookin' Things That Smell so Good," and they are nosin' round trying to find out what it is she's cooking.

For an encore she impersonated a very mischievous little girl on a visit to grandma's farm, and the pranks of this naughty sprite as related by Miss Campbell sent the little guests of the club into roars of laughter.

Miss Campbell was compelled to respond to another encore, and this time she gave "The Moo Cow, Moo," Ice Cream and Candy

After the program the children were served ice cream cones, large, generous ones, and bags of Christmas candy, by Mrs. Sinclair and the hospitality committee.

Miss Champlain precluded the program with a concert number from "Lucia," played in her wonted brilliant style.

Before the party the president, Mrs. Hutchinson, called the club to order for a very short business session. She thanked the members for their Christmas greetings to her, and extended her own greetings and good wishes for the New Year to the club. She also made several announcements, among them one concerning the concert to be given by Watson's Royal Pipe band for the benefit of the club on January 21.

OFFICERS AND DRILL TEAM
OF LOCAL LODGE ATTEND
LARGE INITIATION

Officers of the Glendale order of Elks and about thirty of its members attended the big celebration and initiation in Santa Monica last night. The Santa Monica lodge initiated nearly 300 new members with the aid of officers from all Elk lodges in southern California. Glendale officers and drill team had a part in the initiation ceremonies. All report having a splendid time, as all southern California lodges were well represented. A social time followed the formal program.

Several thousand Elks and their families enjoyed the festivities. The street parade was a big feature and the dance and reception a social event. The class initiated last night was the largest ever taken into the bay district lodge.

NEED MORE HOSPITALS NOW
WASHINGTON — Additional hospital facilities for the treatment of ex-service men and the appointment of an administrative head for the three major agencies involved in rehabilitation work are recommended by Dr. Hugh S. Cumming, surgeon general of the public health service in his annual report sent to congress by the treasury department. Dr. Cumming says the war risk insurance bureau, the federal board of vocational education and the public health service should operate under an administrative head "as co-ordinate and independent bureaus in close co-operation."

Emphasizing the need for additional hospital facilities, Dr. Cumming points out that twenty thousand patients were receiving hospital care from the public health service July 1, as compared with two thousand in October, 1919, and urges that congress make available funds for new construction.
